PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING BEFORE COMPLETING THIS FORM

If the unit is a DPF (FAP) you must have read and understood the (DPF (FAP) Guide to Fitting for the Professional) sheet attached to new unit , The DPF (FAP) is there only to collect the particulate matter and if unit is blocked this is not the fault of the DPF but other factors which you must have investigated before you send unit back and request examination . Please also note there may be a charge for examination and if you require the unit returned there will also be a surcharge applied. When the item is returned it is possible the unit may have been dismantled in order for a detailed investigation to be carried out.
